

Terms and Conditions

1. You must be a member in good standing of Mount Pleasant Potters' Guild (MPPG) to participate in our Pottery Market fundraiser.
2. MPPG is the event sponsor providing the venue and common shared cashier stations.
3. MPPG will retain a commission from all revenue to cover expenses and contribute to ongoing MPPG operational costs and events.
4. You agree to allow any photo(s) taken of your pieces from the Pottery Market to be posted on social media with credit to the artist (you).
5. MPPG assumes no responsibility for damaged or broken pots. All costs incurred due to breakage and damage is assumed by the potter regardless of the cause.
6. MPPG deems all sales final. Any subsequent concerns or requests raised by a customer will be forwarded to the potter to be dealt with.
7. ALL participants must sign up for volunteer activities (two Sunday jobs plus one Saturday job or earlier) to run the event.
8. The Organizing Committee for each market is formed from volunteers. If additional people are required for the committee for the next Market, those people will be selected from the top ten non-exempt sellers from this Market.
9. Failure to deliver on participant responsibilities could result in you being disallowed to participate in future events.
